

MARILIA RANGEL

Function: Markets Coordinator, UBABEF, Brazil

Session: Introduction to the Brazilian Poultry Sector

TOUR Stop: Sao Paulo/Brazil, 07-08 June 2011

Profile

Marilia Rangel R. Martins has a Bachelor's degree in International Relations from the University of Sao Paulo. In 2010 she joined the Master of Science Program in International Relations at the same University.

From 2005 to 2008, Marilia Martins was a volunteer translator for the Inter-American Development Bank. Graduated in 2007, she joined the Brazilian Poultry Association team as Trade Analyst, dealing with statistics, trade reports and market information. In 2009, she became Markets Coordinator for the same association, responsible assisting with institutional relations, trade negotiations, international representation and sustainability research for the poultry sector in Brazil.